You will get an initial 5 day trial period to see if the saddle is correct for your horse and yourself. During this trial period you are still liable for points 1, 2, 3 and 4 below.

By renting a saddle you are agreeing to these conditions.

I, the undersigned, understand that:

1. Saddle must be returned with no damage. Fair Wear and Tear is acceptable (specifically wear on flaps, seat and girth tabs). Damage – nicks, scrapes or scratches in the leather are not acceptable and will be charged for. Should the saddle become damaged during the rental period I will contact Manely Equine Pty Ltd and report the damage.
2. I am liable for the full value of the saddle during the term of the contract. This includes return freight and the time the saddle is in transit back to Manely Equine Pty Ltd.
3. I am liable for any damages incurred during the rental period.
4. I am liable for all freight charges.
5. The Initial rental period is for 3 months. Saddles returned within this time will still be liable for the 3 month charge. After the first 3 months the rental period becomes month to month. Any saddle returned before the month anniversary is still liable for the full monthly rental.
6. By providing a credit/debit card number, I authorise Manely Equine Pty Ltd to automatically charge the card monthly for the saddle rental payment also, for any damage incurred on the saddle.
7. Any delinquency of rental payment will be regarded as a contractual default, and will be subject to immediate collection. I understand that I will be responsible for any collection fees payable.

This contract begins on _____.

I agree that this contract ends when Manely Equine Pty Ltd receives the saddle in good condition, excluding normal wear and tear.
